

Masks welcome but not required.

As of April 3, 2023, face masks are optional for patients, visitors and workers not performing clinical procedures in dental offices and other health care settings in California per the state Department of Public Health.